

NATURAL STONE COLLECTION

STONE CATALOGUE · 2026 EDITION

Choose the stone. Shape the space.

An 80-stone visual selection for residential, commercial and hospitality interiors, supported by in-house fabrication.

STONE SELECTION

A visual starting point

Each photograph represents a named stone in the current online collection. Natural variation means the selected slab remains the final reference for colour, pattern and movement.

01 Shortlist

Save favourite stones online and include the full shortlist in one enquiry.

02 Select

Review the available slab or lot before approving appearance and orientation.

03 Specify

Confirm dimensions, thickness, finish, edges, openings and performance evidence for the intended use.

04 Fabricate

Approve production drawings before CNC cutting, waterjet work and installation coordination.
